

MFS® California Consumer Privacy Notice

Effective Date: May 20, 2025

Last Reviewed: May 2025

MFS takes consumer privacy very seriously. This MFS California Consumer Privacy Notice (the “Notice”) applies when you use the MFS.com website, including MFS Access, when you interact with us by phone, email or in-person, or when you visit one of our offices. This Notice supplements the information contained in our Privacy Notice and Online Privacy Notice and is provided in order to comply with the requirements of the California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018, as amended by the California Privacy Rights Act of 2020, and its corresponding regulations (together the “CCPA”). All terms used in this Notice have the same meaning as defined in the CCPA.

1. SCOPE AND CATEGORIES OF PERSONAL INFORMATION WE COLLECT

We collect Personal Information, as defined by the CCPA as any information that identifies, relates to, describes, is reasonably capable of being associated with, or could reasonably be linked, directly or indirectly, with a particular consumer (i.e., a California resident) or household, as detailed in the table in Section 2 below.

Personal Information does not include:

- Publicly available information from government records.
- Deidentified, aggregated or anonymized information that is maintained in a form that is not capable of being associated with or linked to you.
- Information excluded from the CCPA's scope, such as health or medication information covered by the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA); or information covered by certain sector-specific privacy laws, including the Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA), or the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act (GLBA) (e.g., information concerning MFS Fund shareholders).

2. COLLECTION AND USE OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

We collect Personal Information from and about you for a variety of purposes. For example, we use Personal Information:

- To provide and manage products and services to you or an entity with which you are affiliated.
- To communicate with you.
- For marketing purposes.
- To monitor questions and transactions to ensure service quality, compliance with procedures, and to combat fraud.
- To protect the security and integrity of our business, comply with legal and regulatory requirements and obligations, and as otherwise permitted or required by law.

In the last 12 months, we may have collected the following categories of Personal Information:

Sensitive Personal Information

Some of the Personal Information described in the “Category of Personal Information” table above also constitutes “Sensitive Personal Information” under CCPA. We use and disclose Sensitive Personal Information for business and compliance functions and for legally authorized purposes. We currently do not collect or use Sensitive Personal Information for the purpose of inferring characteristics about consumers.

Categories of Sensitive Personal Information which we collect and use:

- Government-issued Identifiers: Social Security Number, driver's license, state id card or passport number.
- Account log-in credentials: (usernames with password, access code or other credential that permits access to an account) allowing access to your account for our digital offerings. This information would be sourced directly from you and does not relate to financial accounts.
- Non-publicly available information about racial or ethnic origin, religious or philosophical beliefs, or union membership.
- Non-publicly available health information and sexual orientation information.

3. DATA RETENTION PERIOD

MFS will retain records that (hardcopy and electronic) that are legally required to be maintained. Generally, MFS will maintain these records, or cause them to be maintained, for at least the minimum period required. Records that are required to be maintained by more than one applicable law and/or under differing storage requirements, will be maintained for the longest retention period and in accordance with the most restrictive storage standard.

4. DISCLOSURE OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

Sharing of Personal Information

We may share Personal Information with

Outside MFS entities: Personal Information may be provided to third parties, including antifraud organizations, legal, regulatory or law enforcement authorities in cases of suspected criminal activity or contravention of law, for the detection and prevention of fraud, or when required to satisfy the legal or regulatory requirements of governments, regulatory authorities or other self-regulatory organizations, or to comply with a court order.

Within MFS entities: We may share your Personal Information among MFS entities for marketing purposes, for legal and regulatory purposes, to manage risks, to perform analytics, to ensure we have correct or up to date information about you (such as your current address or date of birth) and to better manage your relationship with us.

Business sale or reorganization: Over time, we may buy new businesses or sell some of our businesses. Accordingly, Personal Information associated with any accounts, products or services of the business being purchased or sold will be reviewed as part of the due diligence process and subsequently transferred as a business asset to the new business owner. We may also transfer Personal Information as part of a corporate reorganization or other change in corporate control.

Contractors and agents: We may use affiliates or other companies to provide services on our behalf such as data processing, account administration, fraud prevention and detection, analytics and marketing. Such companies will be given only the Personal Information needed to perform those services and we do not authorize them to use or disclose Personal Information for their own marketing or other purposes. We have contracts in place holding these companies to the same standards of confidentiality by which we are governed.

Whenever we disclose Personal Information to a third party, we enter into a contract that:

- prevents or limits the ability of the third party to further share the Personal Information with other entities and requires the third party to keep the Personal Information confidential,
- contains all required obligations as well as appropriate data protection practices as prescribed by CCPA.
- In the past 12 months, MFS may have shared the following categories of Personal Information with third parties for a business purpose:
 - Identifiers
 - Personal Information categories listed in the California Customer Records statute.

Sale of Personal Information

MFS does not sell your Personal Information. As previously mentioned, in some instances MFS may share Personal Information with third parties. However, these instances are either not a “sale” of information under CCPA or qualify for an exemption to the definition of “sell” (such as providing information to a third party for a specific purpose).

Sale or Sharing of Personal Information of Consumers Under 16 Years of Age

MFS does not have actual knowledge that Personal Information of consumers under 16 years of age is shared. As stated above, MFS does not sell Personal Information.

5. YOUR RIGHTS UNDER CCPA

As a California resident, you may be able to exercise the following rights in relation to the Personal Information about you that we have collected (subject to certain limitations):

The Right to Know	You have the right to request any or all of the following information relating to your Personal Information we have collected and disclosed in the last 12 months, upon verification of your identity: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• The specific pieces of Personal Information we have collected about you;• The categories of Personal Information we have collected about you;• The categories of sources of Personal Information;• The categories of Personal Information that we have disclosed to third parties for a business purpose, and the categories of recipients to whom this information was disclosed;• The categories of Personal Information we have sold and the categories of third parties to whom the information was sold; and• The business or commercial purposes for collecting or selling Personal Information.

The Right to Request Deletion	You have the right to request the deletion of Personal Information we have collected from you, subject to certain exceptions.
The Right to Correct Inaccurate Personal Information	You have the right to request the correction of inaccurate Personal Information.
The Right to Limit Use and Disclosure of Sensitive Personal Information	We currently limit our uses and disclosure of Sensitive Personal Information only to those purposes permissible under CCPA as described above in the “Collection and Use of Personal Information” section of this Notice. We currently do not collect or use Sensitive Personal Information for the purpose of inferring characteristics about consumers and therefore do not offer a right to limit our use and disclosure of your Sensitive Personal Information. In the event our practices change, we will update this Notice and provide you with an option to limit our use and disclosure of your Sensitive Personal Information.
The Right to Opt-Out of Personal Information Sale/Sharing	You have the right to direct us not to sell or share Personal Information we have collected about you to third parties now or in the future.
The Right to Non-Discrimination	You have the right not to receive discriminatory treatment for exercising these rights.

6. TO EXERCISE YOUR RIGHTS UNDER CCPA

To exercise your rights under CCPA, please contact us by calling our toll-free telephone number at 1-800-637-7747 or by emailing us at MFSPrivacyOffice@mfs.com.

When we receive a request, we will attempt to verify the requestor’s identity both as a California resident and by associating the identity with Personal Information previously collected. As such, the request must provide us with enough information that we can reasonably identify and verify that you are the person about whom we collected Personal Information. If we are unable to comply with all or a portion of your request, we will explain our reasons for declining to comply with the request.

You may make requests on behalf of your minor children. You may also register another person with the California Secretary of State in order to authorize that person to act on your behalf.

We will attempt to respond to all verifiable consumer requests within 45 days. In the event we need more time to respond to a request, CCPA allows for an additional 45 days extension. We will notify you within the first 45-day period if we will need to extend the time to respond.
