Rollover check attached (Within 60 days of your receipt from another SIMPLE IRA, a Traditional IRA, or an Employer Sponsored Retirement Plan)

Note: Internal Revenue Service rules allow only one IRA-to-IRA rollover in any twelve-month time period, regardless of the number of IRAs an individual has or the types of IRAs (including traditional and Roth IRAs and SEP and SIMPLE IRAs). Exceeding this limit, even if the prior rollover involved a different type of IRA, will result in an excess contribution to your IRA subject to taxation and penalties. Roth conversions (rollovers from traditional IRAs to Roth IRAs), rollovers between qualified plans and IRAs, and trustee-to-trustee transfers – direct transfers of assets from one IRA trustee to another – are not subject to the one-per-year limit and are disregarded in applying the limit to other rollovers. You may want to consult with your tax advisor before making a rollover.

6. Trustee Acceptance

MFS® Heritage Trust CompanySM shall serve as Trustee under this FORM 5305-S SIMPLE Individual Retirement Trust Account only: (1) for the MFS Family of Funds, (2) in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Trust Agreement, and (3) provided that the required forms are properly completed and received by MFSC. The Trustee’s acceptance of your SIMPLE IRA will be acknowledged by written confirmation from MFS of your initial purchase. This confirmation will reference your account “MFS Heritage Trust Company as Trustee for [your name] SIMPLE IRA.”

7. Investor Signature

I hereby establish an MFS SIMPLE IRA Trust, appoint MFS Heritage Trust Company as Trustee, and: (1) acknowledge that I have received and read the current prospectus(es) for the funds chosen in Section 3 and the appropriate MFS SIMPLE IRA Disclosure Statement and Form 5305-S SIMPLE Individual Retirement Trust Account and (2) certify that, under penalty of perjury, my Social Security number shown on page 1 is correct. I understand that MFSC may use information provided on this application to verify the identity of investors. In the event that MFSC, on behalf of the fund, is unable to verify the identity of investors, MFSC and the fund reserve the right to take additional steps, up to and including closing the account, if required by applicable law.

Important information about procedures for opening a new account

To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who opens an account.

You must provide the following information for each person listed on the account: name, date of birth, Social Security number or Tax ID, and residential address (a P.O. Box is not acceptable). We also may ask to see your driver’s license or other identifying documents. In the event that MFSC, on behalf of the fund, is unable to verify the identity of investors, MFSC and the fund reserve the right to take additional steps up to and including closing the account if required by applicable law.

The participant named above is establishing a savings incentive match plan for employees of small employers individual retirement account (SIMPLE IRA) under sections 408(a) and 408(p) to provide for his or her retirement and for the support of his or her beneficiaries after death.

The trustee named above has given the participant the disclosure statement required by Regulations section 1.408-6.

The participant and the trustee make the following agreement:

Article I

The trustee will accept cash contributions made on behalf of the participant by the participant's employer under the terms of a SIMPLE IRA plan described in section 408(p). In addition, the trustee will accept transfers or rollovers from other SIMPLE IRAs of the participant. No other contributions will be accepted by the trustee.

Article II

The participant's interest in the balance in the trust account is nonforfeitable.

Article III

1. No part of the trust account funds may be invested in life insurance contracts, nor may the assets of the trust account be commingled with other property except in a common trust fund or common investment fund (within the meaning of section 408(a)(5)).
2. No part of the trust account funds may be invested in collectibles (within the meaning of section 408(m)) except as otherwise permitted by section 408(m)(3), which provides an exception for certain gold, silver, and platinum coins, coins issued under the laws of any state, and certain bullion.

Article IV

1. Notwithstanding any provision of this agreement to the contrary, the distribution of the participant's interest in the trust account shall be made in accordance with the following requirements and shall otherwise comply with section 408(a)(6) and the regulations thereunder, the provisions of which are herein incorporated by reference.
 2. The participant's entire interest in the trust account must be, or begin to be, distributed not later than the participant's required beginning date, April 1 following the calendar year in which the participant reaches age 70½. By that date, the participant may elect, in a manner acceptable to the trustee, to have the balance in the trust account distributed in:
 - (a) A single sum or
 - (b) Payments over a period not longer than the life of the participant or the joint lives of the participant and his or her designated beneficiary.
 3. If the participant dies before his or her entire interest is distributed to him or her, the remaining interest will be distributed as follows:
 - (a) If the participant dies on or after the required beginning date and:
 - (i) the designated beneficiary is the participant's surviving spouse, the remaining interest will be distributed over the surviving spouse's life expectancy as determined each year until such spouse's death, or over the period in paragraph (a)(iii) below if longer. Any interest remaining after the spouse's death will be distributed over such spouse's remaining life expectancy as determined in the year of the spouse's death and reduced by 1 for each subsequent year, or, if distributions are being made over the period in paragraph (a)(iii) below, over such period.
 - (ii) the designated beneficiary is not the participant's surviving spouse, the remaining interest will be distributed over the beneficiary's remaining life expectancy as determined in the year following the death of the participant and reduced by 1 for each subsequent year, or over the period in paragraph (a)(iii) below if longer.
 - (iii) there is no designated beneficiary, the remaining interest will be distributed over the remaining life expectancy of the participant as determined in the year of the participant's death and reduced by 1 for each subsequent year.
 - (b) If the participant dies before the required beginning date, the remaining interest will be distributed in accordance with (i) below or, if elected or there is no designated beneficiary, in accordance with (ii) below:
 - (i) The remaining interest will be distributed in accordance with paragraphs (a)(i) and (a)(ii) above (but not over the period in paragraph (a)(iii), even if longer), starting by the end of the calendar year following the year of the participant's death. If, however, the designated beneficiary is the participant's surviving spouse, then this distribution is not required to begin before the end of the calendar year in which the participant would have reached age 70½. But, in such case, if the participant's surviving spouse dies before distributions are required to begin, then the remaining interest will be distributed in accordance with (a)(ii) above (but not over the period in paragraph (a)(iii), even if longer), over such spouse's designated beneficiary's life expectancy, or in accordance with (ii) below if there is no such designated beneficiary.
 - (ii) The remaining interest will be distributed by the end of the calendar year containing the fifth anniversary of the participant's death.
 4. If the participant dies before his or her entire interest has been distributed and if the designated beneficiary is not the participant's surviving spouse, no additional contributions may be accepted in the account.
 5. The minimum amount that must be distributed each year, beginning with the year containing the participant's required beginning date, is known as the "required minimum distribution" and is determined as follows:
 - (a) The required minimum distribution under paragraph 2(b) for any year, beginning with the year the participant reaches age 70½, is the participant's account value at the close of business on December 31 of the preceding year divided by the distribution period in the uniform lifetime table in Regulations section 1.401(a)(9)-9. However, if the participant's designated beneficiary is his or her surviving spouse, the required minimum distribution for a year shall not be more than the participant's account value at the close of business on December 31 of the preceding year divided by the number in the joint and last survivor table in Regulations section 1.401(a)(9)-9. The required minimum distribution for a year under this paragraph (a) is determined using the participant's (or, if applicable, the participant and spouse's) attained age (or ages) in the year.

(b) The required minimum distribution under paragraphs 3(a) and 3(b)(i) for a year, beginning with the year following the year of the participant's death (or the year the participant would have reached age 70½, if applicable under paragraph 3(b)(i)) is the account value at the close of business on December 31 of the preceding year divided by the life expectancy (in the single life table in Regulations section 1.401(a)(9)-9) of the individual specified in such paragraphs 3(a) and 3(b)(i).

(c) The required minimum distribution for the year the participant reaches age 70½ can be made as late as April 1 of the following year. The required minimum distribution for any other year must be made by the end of such year.

6. The owner of two or more IRAs (other than Roth IRAs) may satisfy the minimum distribution requirements described above by taking from one IRA the amount required to satisfy the requirement for another in accordance with the regulations under section 408(a)(6).

Article V

1. The participant agrees to provide the trustee with all information necessary to prepare any reports required by sections 408(i) and 408(l)(2) and Regulations sections 1.408-5 and 1.408-6.

2. The trustee agrees to submit to the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) and participant the reports prescribed by the IRS.

3. The trustee also agrees to provide the participant's employer the summary description described in section 408(l)(2) unless this SIMPLE IRA is a transfer SIMPLE IRA.

Article VI

Notwithstanding any other articles which may be added or incorporated, the provisions of Articles I through III and this sentence will be controlling. Any additional articles inconsistent with sections 408(a) and 408(p) and the related regulations will be invalid.

Article VII

This agreement will be amended as necessary to comply with the provisions of the Code and the related regulations.

Note: The following space (Articles VIII through Article XIII) has been used for additional provisions.

Article VIII

1. Communications to Trustee. All notices, requests, directions, instructions and other communications to or from the Trustee shall be made by such method as the Trustee may from time to time prescribe or permit which methods include in writing, telephonically or electronically, to the extent such method is in accordance with applicable law. The Trustee shall be entitled to rely on any such communication believed by it to be genuine or properly given and shall have no duty of inquiry with respect to any of the matters stated therein or the consequences to the Participant or Beneficiary thereof, and shall be fully protected in acting or omitting to take any action in reliance upon any such communication.

2. Voting. MFS Fund Shares held in the SIMPLE IRA Account shall be voted by, or in accordance with the instructions of, the Participant or Beneficiary. The Trustee shall deliver, or cause to be delivered, to the Participant or to the Beneficiary if the Beneficiary is then receiving benefits under Article IV, all notices, financial statements, prospectuses, contracts, proxies and proxy materials relating to the MFS Fund Shares in the SIMPLE IRA Account. The Trustee shall vote MFS Fund Shares held in the SIMPLE IRA Account in accordance with proper voting instructions from the Participant or Beneficiary. Absent such instructions the Trustee is hereby directed to and shall vote such MFS Fund Shares for or against any proposition in the same proportion as all MFS Fund Shares of the relevant MFS Fund for which instructions have been received.

3. Powers of Trustee. Subject to Article IX, and except as otherwise limited under the terms of this Agreement, the Trustee shall have the power and authority in the administration of the SIMPLE IRA Account to do all acts, to execute and deliver all instruments and to exercise for the sole benefit of the Participant and his Beneficiary any and all powers which would be lawful were it in its own right the actual owner of the property held, including by way of illustration, but not in limitation of the powers conferred by law, the following:

(a) To sell or exchange any part of the assets of the SIMPLE IRA Account;

(b) To register any asset held by the Trustee in its own name, or in nominee or bearer form that will pass by delivery;

(c) To consent to or participate in dissolutions, reorganization, mergers, sales, transfers or other changes in securities held by the Trustee, and in such connection to delegate the Trustee's powers and to pay assessments, subscriptions, and other charges;

(d) To make distributions from the SIMPLE IRA Account in cash or in kind pursuant to the provisions of the Agreement; and

(e) To invest and reinvest all or a part of the contributions made to the SIMPLE IRA Account and dividends, capital gain distributions or any other income thereon in MFS Fund Shares (including fractional shares carried to the third decimal place) and to retain such Shares without any duty of further diversification.

4. Compensation and Expenses. The Trustee shall receive such compensation for its services hereunder as may be agreed upon from time to time by the Trustee and the Participant, or by the Trustee and the Beneficiary of the Participant if the Beneficiary is then receiving benefits under Article IV. The Application contains a statement of the Trustee's compensation. MFS Fund Distributors, Inc. is hereby delegated the power to agree to such compensation on behalf of the Participant or Beneficiary, provided that after at least 30 days' notice to the Participant or Beneficiary of any increase in compensation, no objection shall have been made thereto. Any compensation of the Trustee, and any expenses, liabilities or other charges incurred by the Trustee in the administration of the SIMPLE IRA Account, shall be paid from the SIMPLE IRA Account unless paid by the Participant. In addition, the Trustee may, upon such terms and conditions (including without limitation receipt of such documentation) as the Trustee deems necessary, agree to pay directly from the SIMPLE IRA Account certain advisory or other similar fees at the direction of the Participant or Beneficiary, or his or her designee.

5. Resignation and Removal. The Trustee may resign at any time upon notice to MFS Fund Distributors, Inc. and may be removed by MFS Fund Distributors, Inc. at any time upon notice to the Trustee. Any such notice of resignation or removal shall take effect on the date specified therein, which shall not be less than 30 days after the delivery thereof, unless such notice shall be waived by the party entitled to the notice. Upon such resignation or removal, MFS Fund Distributors, Inc. shall appoint a successor trustee, which successor shall be a "bank" (as defined in Code Section 408(n)) or such other person who has demonstrated to the satisfaction of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue that he will administer the trust in a manner consistent with the law. In the event that MFS Fund Distributors, Inc. exercises this power, the Participant or Beneficiary, if such Beneficiary is then receiving benefits under Article IV, shall be deemed to have consented to such change of Trustee if no objection is received by MFS Fund Distributors, Inc. within 30 days after the Participant or Beneficiary receives notice of the change. If within 30 days after the Trustee's resignation or removal MFS Fund Distributors, Inc. has not appointed a successor trustee that has accepted such appointment, the Trustee may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for appointment of a successor trustee. Upon receipt by the Trustee of acceptance of appointment by the successor trustee, the Trustee shall transfer and pay over to such successor the assets of the SIMPLE IRA Account and all records pertaining thereto. The Trustee is authorized, however, to reserve such sum of money as it may deem advisable for payment of all its fees, compensation, costs and expenses, or for payment of any other liabilities constituting a charge on or against the assets of the SIMPLE IRA Account or on or against the Trustee. Any balance remaining after payment of such items shall be paid over to the successor trustee. The successor trustee shall thereafter be deemed to be the Trustee under this Agreement.

6. Failure to Consent. If the Participant or Beneficiary does not consent to an appointment of a successor trustee, a change in the Trustee's compensation, or an amendment to this Agreement made or agreed to by MFS Fund Distributors, Inc., this Agreement shall be deemed amended by the Participant or Beneficiary, with the result that MFS Fund Distributors, Inc. shall cease to be the sponsor of this Agreement. Further, the Trustee shall notify the Participant or Beneficiary as soon as possible following such objection of its resignation as trustee of this SIMPLE IRA Account as of the thirtieth day following the date of such notice. If within thirty (30) days from the date of such notice the Participant or Beneficiary fails to appoint a new trustee or take other appropriate action with respect to the SIMPLE IRA Account, the Participant or Beneficiary directs the Trustee to distribute all assets held under the SIMPLE IRA Account in a lump sum as soon as administratively reasonable after the close of said thirty day period.

Article IX

1. Cash Contributions. The Trustee shall apply each cash contribution to the IRA Account to the purchase of MFS Fund Shares (including fractional shares carried to the third decimal place) in accordance with the Participant's instructions.

2. Contributions in Property. The Trustee shall not accept contributions in property other than cash or MFS Fund Shares. If MFS Funds Shares are contributed, the Trustee will, if so instructed by the Participant and if acceptable to the Trustee, hold such assets in the IRA account. The Trustee shall invest the proceeds from such liquidation, after deduction for all expenses and charges, including fees of the Trustee, incurred in effecting such liquidation, in accordance with the provisions of Paragraph 1 of this Article IX. A rollover contribution to the IRA account consisting of MFS Fund Shares shall be received via a transfer in-kind contribution and such assets will be held in the IRA account.

3. Dividends and Other Payments. Dividends, capital gain distributions and any other cash payments attributable to MFS Fund Shares held in the SIMPLE IRA Account shall be invested in the same shares to which such payments are attributable unless the Participant otherwise directs. If dividend or capital gain distributions are payable in MFS Fund Shares or cash, at the option of the holder, the Trustee shall elect payment in full and fractional shares.

4. Change in Investment. The Participant may direct the Trustee at any time and from time to time: (i) to exchange the MFS Fund Shares held in the SIMPLE IRA Account for other MFS Fund Shares in accordance with the then current prospectuses relating to such shares; and (ii) to liquidate any investments then held in the SIMPLE IRA Account and invest the net proceeds in any form of investment permitted under this Article IX.

5. Incomplete or Unclear Instructions. If at any time the IRA Account holds cash for which investment instructions have not been received, or if the Trustee receives instructions with respect to the selection or allocation of investments that are in the Trustee's opinion incomplete or unclear, the Trustee may request other instructions from the participant (or beneficiary, if applicable). Pending receipt of such instructions, such uninvested cash may remain uninvested pending receipt of proper instructions, be invested in money market MFS Fund Shares, or be returned to the participant or beneficiary; any invested assets may remain in the most recent properly selected investment. The Trustee shall not be liable for any loss resulting from delay in investing assets or implementing instructions pursuant to this Paragraph. Further, if the participant fails to provide instructions satisfactory to the Trustee regarding the investment of proceeds that the IRA Account receives in the event an MFS Fund in which the participant's IRA Account is invested is liquidated and there is no successor fund (a "Liquidation"), then the participant hereby directs that the proceeds of the Liquidation be invested in an MFS Fund that is a money market fund or, if no such money market fund exists at the relevant time, in the MFS Fund that is the shortest duration bond fund in existence at that time.

Article X

1. Amendment. This Agreement may be amended by the Trustee and by the Participant, or by the Trustee and the Beneficiary of the Participant if such Beneficiary is then receiving benefits under Article IV. In addition, the Participant hereby delegates to MFS Fund Distributors, Inc. the power to amend this Agreement on behalf of the Participant or Beneficiary. MFS Fund Distributors, Inc. shall notify the Participant or Beneficiary of any such amendment. The Participant or Beneficiary shall be deemed to have consented to any such amendment if he or she fails to object thereto within 30 calendar days from the date such notice is sent.

2. Termination. This Agreement shall terminate upon the complete distribution of the assets held in the SIMPLE IRA Account or in the event that a determination is made by the Internal Revenue Service that the SIMPLE IRA Account does not qualify as an individual retirement account within the meaning of Code Section 408(a). In the event the SIMPLE IRA Account is terminated, the balance in the SIMPLE IRA Account shall be distributed to the Participant or to the Beneficiary, as the case may be.

Article XI

1. Annual Accounting. The Trustee and/or its nominee shall send to the Participant, or to the Beneficiary if such Beneficiary is then receiving benefits under Article IV, at least once during each calendar year, a report concerning the status of a Participant's SIMPLE IRA Account including statements of all transactions in the SIMPLE IRA Account during the preceding calendar year, and statements showing the value of each asset held in the IRA Account as of December 31 of such preceding year. The Participant or Beneficiary should notify the Trustee of any exception or objection to the annual accounting within 60 days after it is so sent.

2. Notice. Unless different communication methods provided under Section 1 of Article VIII shall at any time apply, the annual accounting referred to in paragraph 1 immediately above and all other notices from the Trustee hereunder shall be mailed to the Participants address appearing on the Application or to such other address as the Participant, or the Participant's Beneficiary if such Beneficiary is then receiving benefits under Article IV, has notified the Trustee for this purpose.

3. Filing of Returns and Reports. The Trustee shall file such returns or reports with respect to the SIMPLE IRA Account as are required to be filed by it under the Code and regulations thereunder, including reports required under Code Section 408(i), or by the Department of Labor or the Department of Treasury, and the Participant or Beneficiary shall provide the Trustee with such information as it may require to file such reports.

Article XII

As used herein:

(a) "Beneficiary" shall mean the person or persons currently designated by the Participant (including individuals, trusts, estates, partnerships, corporations, associations, charitable or educational organizations or other similar entities), or by his Beneficiary if such Beneficiary is then receiving benefits in accordance with the minimum distribution requirements of Code Section 408(a)(6), as the Beneficiary or Beneficiaries on the form provided for this purpose by the Trustee or, if no such Beneficiary has been designated or is alive at the time of distribution, the executor or other legal representative of the Participant (or his Beneficiary). The initial Beneficiary shall be the person or persons designated as such on the Application. Where there is more than one Beneficiary designated, distributions from the SIMPLE IRA Account shall be made pro rata among those Beneficiaries who are alive at the time of the distribution, unless specified otherwise in the designation form.

(b) "MFS Fund Shares" means shares of any regulated investment company or companies within the meaning of Code Section 851(a) as may be designated by MFS Fund Distributors, Inc.

Masculine words will be read and construed in the feminine where required by the context.

Article XIII

Notwithstanding any provision in the document to the contrary, to the extent permitted by federal law, the Trustee shall comply with any order or levy for payment of child support obligations issued by any United States federal or state court, regardless of the state of issuance.

Article XIV

Notwithstanding any other provision in this Agreement, if the Participant has entered into any Spectrum or Select contract(s) relating to this SIMPLE IRA Account, the provisions of said contract(s) shall continue to apply to this SIMPLE IRA Account to the extent applicable. This SIMPLE IRA Account is established with the intent that it qualify as an "individual retirement account" under Code Section 408(a), and the provisions hereof shall be construed in accordance with such intent. To the extent not superseded by federal law, this Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the state of New Hampshire generally with respect to the duties, rights, and responsibilities of the Trustee, but shall be governed by the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts with respect to matters relating to or arising out of any payment(s) made or to be made from the SIMPLE IRA Account.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Purpose of Form

Form 5305-S is a model trust account agreement that meets the requirements of sections 408(a) and 408(p) and has been pre-approved by the IRS. A SIMPLE individual retirement account (SIMPLE IRA) is established after the form is fully executed by both the individual (participant) and the trustee. This account must be created in the United States for the exclusive benefit of the participant and his or her beneficiaries.

Do not file Form 5305-S with the IRS. Instead, keep it with your records.

For more information on SIMPLE IRAs, including the required disclosures the trustee must give the participant, see Pub. 590, Individual Retirement Arrangements (IRAs).

Definitions

Participant. The participant is the person who establishes the trust account.

Trustee. The trustee must be a bank or savings and loan association, as defined in section 408(n), or any person who has the approval of the IRS to act as trustee.

Transfer SIMPLE IRA

This SIMPLE IRA is a "transfer SIMPLE IRA" if it is not the original recipient of contributions under any SIMPLE IRA plan. The summary description requirements of section 408(l)(2) do not apply to transfer SIMPLE IRAs.

Specific Instructions

Article IV. Distributions made under this article may be made in a single sum, periodic payment, or a combination of both. The distribution option should be reviewed in the year the participant reaches age 70½ to ensure that the requirements of section 408(a)(6) have been met.

Article VIII. Article VIII and any that follow it may incorporate additional provisions that are agreed to by the participant and trustee to complete the agreement. They may include, for example, definitions, investment powers, voting rights, exculpatory provisions, amendment and termination, removal of the trustee, trustee's fees, state law requirements, beginning date of distributions, accepting only cash, treatment of excess contributions, prohibited transactions with the participant, etc. Attach additional pages if necessary.

MFS[®] SIMPLE IRA DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

The following information is being provided to you by MFS[®] Heritage Trust CompanySM (the "Trustee") in accordance with the requirements of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 and regulations thereunder, as amended (the "Code"). This statement should be read in conjunction with the MFS SIMPLE IRA agreement and application (collectively, the "Agreement") and the prospectus for each investment option you have selected. The provisions of the Agreement and prospectus(es) must prevail over this statement in any instance where this statement is incomplete or unclear.

This statement summarizes the requirements for establishing an MFS SIMPLE IRA and provisions of federal tax law applicable to SIMPLE IRAs. The state tax treatment of your IRA may be different; state tax information should be available from your state taxing authority or your own tax advisor.

Right to Revoke

You may revoke your SIMPLE IRA for any reason within seven calendar days after the date you sign the application by mailing or delivering a written request that your SIMPLE IRA be revoked to:

MFS Service Center, Inc.
Attention: SIMPLE Individual Retirement Account
P.O. Box 55824
Boston, MA 02205-5824

If you revoke your SIMPLE IRA, the entire amount of your contribution, without adjustment for items such as administrative expenses, fees, interest, or fluctuation in market value, will be returned to you. If you have any questions concerning this revocation procedure you may phone MFS at 1-800-637-1255.

Introduction to SIMPLE Plans

The Small Business Job Protection Act of 1996 created a retirement plan called the Savings Incentive Match Plan for Employees of Small Employers (SIMPLE plans). Your employer has chosen to establish a SIMPLE plan, which will require each plan participant to establish a SIMPLE Individual Retirement Account ("SIMPLE IRA") into which plan contributions will be deposited. Internal Revenue Service regulations require that you be given this disclosure statement to ensure that you are apprised of the pertinent statutory rules governing a SIMPLE IRA and the federal tax consequences of establishing such an account.

SIMPLE IRA status

The Internal Revenue Service issues Form 5305-S, which is being used to establish your SIMPLE IRA. However, the Internal Revenue Service has approved only the form of your SIMPLE IRA and has not approved the merits of this SIMPLE IRA or the operation of the SIMPLE Plan under which your employer makes contributions to this account..

Contributions

1. Employees eligible for a SIMPLE IRA

Information on eligibility to participate in your employer's SIMPLE Plan will be included in the summary description of the plan furnished to you by your employer.

2. Kind and amount

- (a) Types of Contributions. Contributions to a SIMPLE IRA may be either salary deferral contributions or employer contributions. Contributions other than rollover contributions must be made in cash and cannot exceed the maximum amount allowed under the Internal Revenue Code.
- (b) Amount of Contributions. On a pretax basis, you may elect to contribute (through salary deferrals) up to $11,500 of your own compensation to your SIMPLE IRA. The $11,500 maximum contribution is effective for 2012 and may increase in future years. Also, individuals age 50 and older may make additional "catch-up" contributions of up to $2,500 (for 2012) to their SIMPLE IRAs. Any employee who will attain age 50 by the end of the calendar year is eligible to make catch-up contributions for that year. The limit on catch-up contributions may increase in future years. In addition to your contributions, your employer is required to make either (1) a dollar-for-dollar matching contribution or (2) a nonelective contribution to your account each year. In general, matching contributions must equal up to 3% of your compensation, but under certain circumstances, your employer may make lower matching contributions. If your employer chooses to make a lower matching contribution, you will be notified. Instead of the match, your employer may make a nonelective contribution on your behalf equal to 2% of your compensation (compensation for purposes of any nonelective contribution is limited to $250,000 (for 2012), as indexed).
- (c) Rollover Contributions. During the two-year period beginning with the date you first participate in a SIMPLE plan ("Initial two-year participation period"), you may roll over or transfer contributions from a SIMPLE IRA only to another SIMPLE IRA. After the initial two-year participation period, you may roll over or transfer contributions from a SIMPLE IRA to another IRA that is not a SIMPLE IRA, or you may be able to roll over your SIMPLE IRA into another eligible retirement plan that will accept the rollover. Also, after the initial two-year participation period you may roll over a distribution from an employer-sponsored retirement plan or a Traditional IRA into a SIMPLE IRA; this provision applies to rollovers made after December 18, 2015.

3. Nature and Investment

Contributions must be made in cash. Rollover contributions can be made either in cash or in MFS Fund Shares. Further, a SIMPLE IRA cannot be invested in life insurance or collectibles, nor may SIMPLE IRA assets be commingled with other property except in a common trust fund or common investment fund. There are also several other restrictions on the use of SIMPLE IRA assets described in the "Other Tax Considerations" section below. The assets in your SIMPLE IRA will be invested as you direct in MFS fund shares available for investment from time to time under the terms of your MFS SIMPLE IRA. You should read all information, including prospectuses, about the permissible investments that must be provided to you so that you can make an informed investment decision. In the event an MFS Fund in which your IRA is invested is liquidated and there is no successor fund (a "Liquidation"), if you otherwise do not direct the reinvestment of those assets, then you hereby direct that the proceeds of the Liquidation be invested in an MFS Fund that is a money market fund or, if no such money market fund exists at the relevant time, in the MFS Fund that is the shortest duration bond fund in existence at that time. All fees and other charges that must be paid from SIMPLE IRA assets in connection with each investment, and the method for computing and allocating earnings for each investment, are described in such informational materials. Growth in the value of your account invested in MFS fund shares cannot be guaranteed or projected.

4. Nonforfeiture

Your interest in your SIMPLE IRA is at all times nonforfeitable. Your SIMPLE IRA is established for the exclusive benefit of you and your beneficiaries.

Distributions

1. Premature Distributions

You may withdraw any or all of your SIMPLE IRA account at any time upon application to the Trustee in suitable form. However, if you make withdrawals from your SIMPLE IRA before you reach age 59½, a 10% excise tax will be imposed on the distribution in addition to ordinary income taxes. The 10% penalty increases to 25% for distributions you take before you have participated in a SIMPLE plan for at least two years. The 10% or 25% excise tax will not apply to any distribution that (1) is an exempt withdrawal of an excess contribution (discussed on next page), (2) is rolled over in accordance with Code requirements, (3) is on account of your death or disability, (4) is one of a series of substantially equal periodic payments paid not less frequently than annually for your life or life expectancy or for the joint lives or joint life expectancies of you and your beneficiary, (5) does not exceed the amount of your medical expenses that could be deducted for the year (generally speaking, medical expenses paid during a year are deductible to the extent they exceed 7.5% of your adjusted gross income for the year), (6) subject to certain restrictions, does not exceed the premiums you paid for health insurance coverage for yourself, your spouse, and dependents, if you have been unemployed and received unemployment compensation for at least 12 weeks, (7) is a transfer to another SIMPLE IRA pursuant to a decree of divorce or separate maintenance or a written instrument incident to such a decree, (8) is made due to an IRS levy for income taxes, (9) is used to pay the qualified higher education expenses of you, your spouse, or a dependent, or (10) is used for a first-time home purchase, subject to a lifetime $10,000 limit.

2. Required Distributions

- (a) Form of Distribution. Subject to the rules discussed in paragraphs 2(b) and 2(c), you may elect to receive distributions from your SIMPLE IRA in the following forms:
- (1) A single lump-sum payment;
 - (2) Monthly, quarterly, semiannual, or annual payments over a specified period that does not extend beyond (i) your life expectancy or (ii) the joint life and last survivor expectancy of you and your designated beneficiary.

Even if you have begun receiving distributions in accordance with (2) above, you can at any time direct that all or any portion of the balance of your IRA be distributed to you.

- (b) To the Individual: Generally, distributions of your SIMPLE IRA account balance must begin no later than April 1 immediately following the end of the calendar year in which you reach age 70½ (the “required beginning date”). Distributions for subsequent calendar years must be made no later than December 31 of that year. The minimum amount required to be distributed once you reach your required beginning date is your SIMPLE IRA account balance as of December 31 of the calendar year immediately preceding the year for which the distribution is being made divided by the applicable “distribution period.” Generally, the distribution period is determined each year under the Uniform Distribution Period Table (provided in the Final Regulations under Internal Revenue Code Section 401(a)(9)) and is equal to the joint life and last survivor expectancy of you and a hypothetical beneficiary who is 10 years younger than you. If your spouse is your sole primary beneficiary and is more than 10 years younger than you, your required minimum distribution will be determined each year using the actual joint life and last survivor expectancy of you and your spouse, as determined under Treasury Regulation Section 1.72-9.
- (c) On Death: The distribution period for any amount remaining in your SIMPLE IRA at your death will generally be the single life expectancy of your designated beneficiary, based on his or her age in the calendar year following the calendar year of your death. For subsequent years, the life expectancy of a nonspouse beneficiary will be the beneficiary’s initial life expectancy, reduced by one each year. If your sole beneficiary is your spouse, his or her life expectancy will be recalculated each year. If you have more than one designated beneficiary and your account is not divided into separate accounts for each beneficiary, the life expectancy of the oldest beneficiary will be used to determine the distribution period. The determination of who your designated beneficiary is will be made as of September 30 of the calendar year following the calendar year of your death.

If your spouse is your beneficiary and you die before your required beginning date, your spouse may elect to defer receiving required distributions until the year in which you would have reached age 70½. Alternatively, if your spouse is your sole beneficiary, he or she may elect to treat the SIMPLE IRA as his or her own SIMPLE IRA, or your spouse may roll over the SIMPLE IRA into another IRA or other eligible retirement plan in which he or she participates, if such plan accepts such rollovers.

If you die after your required beginning date and you do not have a designated beneficiary as of September 30 of the calendar year following the calendar year of your death, the distribution period for your remaining account will be your life expectancy based on your age in the year of your death, reduced by one in each subsequent year. If you die before your required beginning date and do not have a designated beneficiary, the entire remaining account must be paid out by the end of the fifth year following the year of your death.

3. Minimum Distributions

If the amount distributed from your SIMPLE IRA in any year is less than the minimum amount required to be distributed (see paragraph 2 above), you (or your beneficiary, if applicable) will be subject to a 50% excise tax on the difference between the amount required to be distributed and the amount actually distributed. It is the SIMPLE IRA holder’s responsibility to seek assistance from a tax advisor, to calculate minimum distribution amounts, and to direct the trustee as to the amount and method of distribution desired.

4. Taxation of Distributions

Distributions from your SIMPLE IRA are taxable as ordinary income in the year they are received; SIMPLE IRA distributions do not qualify for capital gains treatment, and the special tax treatment of lump-sum distributions from qualified employer retirement plans is not available.

Other Tax considerations

1. Excess Contributions

If the amount of your SIMPLE IRA contributions for a year exceeds the maximum permissible contribution, the excess contribution amount will be subject to a 6% excise tax. However, the 6% excise tax will not be imposed if you withdraw the excess contribution and any earnings on it on or before the due date for filing your federal income tax return for the year (including extensions). The amount of the excess contribution withdrawn will not be considered a premature distribution nor taxed as ordinary income, but the earnings withdrawn will be taxable income to you. Alternatively, excess contributions for one year may be carried forward and treated as a contribution in the next year to the extent that the excess, when aggregated with your SIMPLE IRA contribution (if any) for the subsequent year, does not exceed the maximum contribution amount for that year. The 6% excise tax will be imposed on excess contributions in each year they are neither returned nor within the permitted contribution limit.

2. Prohibited Transactions

If you or your beneficiary engage in any transaction prohibited by Code Section 4975 (such as any sale, exchange, or leasing of any property or extension of credit between you and the account), the account will lose its tax exemption and the entire balance of the account will be treated as having been distributed to you as of the first day of the calendar year in which the transaction occurs. This distribution will be taxable as ordinary income and, if you are under age 59½ at the time, will also be subject to the 10% (or 25%) excise tax on premature distributions.

If you or your beneficiary use all or any part of your SIMPLE IRA assets as security for a loan, the portion so used will be treated as having been distributed to you, and will be taxable as ordinary income and, if you are under age 59½ at the time, will also be subject to the 10% (or 25%) excise tax on premature distributions.

3. Gift Tax

If you elect during your lifetime to have all or any part of your SIMPLE IRA payable to a beneficiary upon your death, the election will not subject you to any gift tax liability.

4. Tax Withholding and Reporting

Federal income tax will be withheld from distributions you receive from a SIMPLE IRA unless you elect not to have taxes withheld. You must file Form 5329 for any year in which there is an excess contribution to, premature distribution from, or insufficient distribution from your SIMPLE IRA.

5. Costs and Penalties Applicable to Initial Investment in and any Subsequent Transfer of your SIMPLE IRA

In general, your initial and subsequent investments under your SIMPLE IRA are subject to certain sales commissions and custodian fees which are explained in detail in the prospectus that preceded or accompanied your receipt of this SIMPLE IRA Disclosure Statement. The fund in which you are investing will pay its investment advisor certain annual management fees and also may incur additional operating expenses.

You may transfer your contributions to a SIMPLE IRA at another financial institution at any time. After you have been a participant in a SIMPLE plan for two years, you may transfer your account to an IRA that is not a SIMPLE IRA at MFS or another financial institution or you may roll over amounts from your SIMPLE IRA to another eligible retirement plan that will accept it. To initiate such a transfer, contact the new trustee or custodian to obtain the appropriate forms. MFS will complete a "trustee-to-trustee" or similar transfer of all or a portion of your SIMPLE IRA account balance upon receipt of the recipient institution's acceptance of the SIMPLE IRA account. If your contribution was invested in a mutual fund subject to a sales charge, then the sales charges will not be refunded. MFS is not the designated financial institution of your employer's SIMPLE plan. As a result, costs and penalties (including load fees) may be imposed on accounts that are transferred to another trustee or custodian.

6. Additional Information

You may obtain further information concerning your SIMPLE IRA from any district office of the Internal Revenue Service or by visiting its Web site at www.irs.gov, or you may contact MFS at 1-800-637-1255.

Note: Although MFS may provide general information concerning your MFS SIMPLE IRA, MFS does not provide tax or other financial, legal, or technical advice. You are urged to contact your own advisor for such guidance.
